Medical, Dental, Vision, Health Savings Account (HSA) and Employee Assistance Program (EAP)	Coverage for yourself and your dependent(s) ends on your last day of employment. However, you may be able to continue coverage under COBRA for you and/or your dependents. In addition to COBRA, you may want to visit HealthCare.gov to learn about the medical plans available in your state through the Affordable Care Act. Assorted plans may be available to you at different costs. Depending on your income, you may be eligible for a government subsidy.	You and/or your eligible dependent(s) may be able to continue your medical, dental, vision and EAP coverage through COBRA, at your own expense, if you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have coverage on your last day of employment at the Company (or last day prior to a leave of absence if you don't return to work), and • Want to keep the same coverage you currently have. Government regulations and your individual circumstances determine the length of time you're eligible for COBRA coverage. If your medical coverage is through an HMO, you may be able to convert your coverage to an individual policy when your COBRA coverage ends. Contact your HMO for details.	The Company will notify Health Equity, the COBRA administrator, of your right to elect COBRA continuation coverage. The COBRA administrator will mail COBRA information to you within 10 days after they receive notification of your termination. If you don't receive the notice, call Health Equity at 877-722-2667. To elect COBRA continuation coverage, follow the instructions in the Health Equity information mailed to your home. If you elect to continue coverage through COBRA and pay the required premiums, COBRA coverage will be effective on the day after your Company coverage ends.	If you don't elect COBRA coverage within the 60-day eligibility period, you'll lose the right to elect COBRA coverage. You may cancel COBRA coverage at any time by ceasing to pay the premiums. Note that conditions and restrictions apply to COBRA continuation coverage. For more information, contact Health Equity at 877-722-2667. If you have a Health Savings Account (HSA), the funds in your account belong to you, but all fees associated with your account will become your responsibility after you leave the Company. Contact Fidelity, the HSA administrator, at 866-956-3433.	If you have an HSA, you can keep it, but you'll have to pay the monthly account fee. If you do not wish to maintain it, you can close your account by contacting Fidelity, the HSA administrator, at 866-956-3433. IMPORTANT: Keep in mind that if you're under 65, you'll have to pay taxes and a penalty on any HSA funds paid out to you.
Health Care and Dependent Day Care Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA)	Contributions to an FSA stop on your last day of employment. You may be able continue your Health Care FSA under COBRA. Continuation of your Dependent Day Care FSA is not available.	You may be able to continue participating in a Health Care FSA under COBRA. Keep in mind contributions to your Health Care FSA under COBRA are made post-tax and will allow you to have continued access to the funds in your Health Care FSA.	To elect COBRA continuation coverage, follow the instructions in the Health Equity information mailed to your home. If you elect to continue a Health Care FSA through COBRA, contact HealthEquity, the FSA administrator, at 866-346-5800 on how to make post-tax contributions to our account.	You have 90 days from the last day of the plan year to submit claims for reimbursement to HealthEquity, the FSA administrator. You cannot submit Health Care FSA claims for expenses incurred after your termination date unless you continue under COBRA. You can submit claims for Dependent Day Care FSA expenses incurred through the last day of the plan year in which you terminated.	N/A
