Albertsons Companies Pregnancy Leave for New Jersey Associates

When you're out on pregnancy leave, your income may be partially replaced by different programs available to you. You may also be eligible for job protection.

Under NJ TDI and NJ FLI, associates taking a pregnancy, childbirth or bonding related leave are entitled to up 85% of your weekly wage up to a maximum of $1,081.00.

NJ FLI provides benefits so you can bond with your newborn. You have two options. You can take 12 weeks all at once immediately after the birth, or you can take 8 weeks in smaller segments throughout the first year of the baby's life.

NJ TDI and NJ FLI do not offer job protection. However, job protection may be available through the New Jersey Family Leave Act (NJ FLA).
