Military Caregiver Leave for District of Columbia (DC) Associates

An eligible associate using military caregiver leave may be entitled to a combined total of twenty-six (26) workweeks of FMLA leave to care for a seriously ill or injured service member.

The 26 weeks of FMLA military caregiver leave may run concurrently with DC FMLA if the family member is a covered family member under DC FMLA.

While you are on an approved leave, you may replace your income with paid time off by using available sick pay first, then available FTO, PTO or vacation to top off your weekly pay to no more than 100% of your full wages.

Military caregiver leave can be taken all at once or can be split over a 12-month period.
