Bonding, Adoption and Foster Care Leave for District of Columbia (DC) Associates

Under DC FMLA, an eligible associate can take up to sixteen (16) weeks off in a 24-month period from work for bonding with a new child welcomed into the family through birth, adoption or foster care.

You may be eligible for job protection for up to 12 weeks under FMLA and up to 16 weeks in a 24-month period under DC FMLA. This means your original position or an equivalent one will be made available when you return provided your leave does not exceed the permissible amount.

While you are on an approved leave, your income may be replaced by DC UPL for up to 12 weeks. DC UPL pays associates up to $1,190 per week.

To bond with a new child, leave can be taken anytime within the first 12 months of a child entering your family.
